

The General Post Master Council for The United States of America.
Hours of Operation Monday-Friday 9 AM-9 PM CST.
Email: gpmcouncil@generalpostoffice.international
Phone: 1-(405) 458-0553

Articles of Re-Organization of the Judicial Branch of the Government of The United States of America

Article 1

IT IS ORDERED, that

FURTHER BE IT ENACTED, by the United States, in Congress assembled that THE UNIFORM RULE FOR THE JUDICIAL BRANCH OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA ACT OF 2013, consisting of a Judicial Branch made up of a Notarial Tribunal for The United States of America, headed by the Secretary of State for The United States of America. The office of peaceful settlement of disputes for The United States of America, headed by the general post office for The United States of America. The International Criminal Court of The United States of America and the Investigators Division for The United States of America, headed by the General Post Master Council for The United States of America. Each part of the Judicial Branch of The United States of America shall have equal suffrage so that one part cannot usurp the powers and authority of the other. All parts of the Judicial Branch of The United States of America, just as any other branch shall be subject to the laws enacted by the assembly of affirmed American Nationals, properly convened.

IT IS ORDERED, that the Notarial Tribunal under the Secretary of State for The United States of America shall be renamed The Human Rights Defenders under the Secretary of State for The United States of America. This order shall define The Human Rights Defenders as judicial officers for the purpose of National Police and investigation.

FURTHER BE IT ORDERED, that all office holders within the General Post Master Council shall be known as judges, and

IT IS RECOGNIZED, that the General Post Master Council accepts that the International Criminal Court has been redefined as The Supreme Court of the Confederacy of The United States of America and then transformed into The Human Rights Tribunal with two branches. The Human Rights Tribunal and The War Crimes Tribunal, both with International and National jurisdiction.

IT IS RECOGNIZED, that the General Post Master Council accepts that the office of peaceful settlement of disputes for The United States of America and is headed by the General Post Office of the Government of The United States of America.

STRUCTURE OF THE JUDICIAL BRANCH

- 1: The office of Peaceful Settlement of Disputes-first appeal to:
- 2: Human Rights Defenders for investigation, recording, accepting evidence etc.. to be heard in the General Post Master Council. Statute (Common law) or Criminal, appeal to:
- 3: The Human Rights Tribunal or War Crimes Tribunal: The Human Rights Tribunal is “human rights cases” and the War Crimes Tribunal is criminal.
- 4: The last appeal is to the assembly for the Government of The United States of America if the Judicial Branch fails to render proper judgment.

INCONCLUSION

Each part of the Judicial Branch of The United States of America shall have equal suffrage so that one part cannot usurp the powers and authority of the other. All parts of the Judicial Branch of The United States of America, just as any other branch shall be subject to the laws enacted by the assembly of affirmed American Nationals, properly convened.

Authority: THE UNIFORM RULE FOR THE JUDICIAL BRANCH OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA ACT OF 2013

May 2, 2014
Received Date

8:40 PM
Time

RH-5CED70D2-CAFD-4382-A6TH-81CD5C9E8G45
Record File Number

Signed by all Judges

